D. Any information given to a prospective proposer concerning this request for proposals will be furnished to all prospective proposers as an amendment to the request for submitting a proposal, or if lack of such information would result in a competitive disadvantage to uniformed proposers. All such addenda shall become a part of these proposal documents. Failure of the Authority to send, or any proposer to receive, any such interpretation shall not relieve any proposer from an obligation under his/her proposal as submitted. It shall be the proposer's responsibility to make inquiry as to addenda issued.

IV. Audits

A. The successful proposer binds himself/herself to permit the CMHA and HUD to examine and/or audit at any time the records pertaining to the services provided.

V. Time for Review

A. The proposer agrees that the Authority shall be permitted a maximum of sixty (60) days from the date of opening of proposals for issuing a "Notice of Acceptance" and beginning contract negotiations with a proposer. This term may be extended:

1. By mutual agreement of the parties in writing; or

VII. Withdrawal of Proposals

A. Any withdrawal of proposal by telegram or by mail is authorized provided it is received prior to the time of the scheduled proposal opening. A proposal may also be withdrawn in person by the proposer or authorized representative, provided the representative's identity is made known and the representative signs a receipt for the proposal, but only if the withdrawal is made before the exact time set for opening of proposals.

B. The only acceptable evidence to establish the date of receipt of withdrawal sent either by registered or certified mail is the U.S. Postal Service postmark on the wrapper or on the original receipt form the U.S. Postal Service. If neither postmark shows a legible date, the withdrawal shall be considered to have been mailed late.

C. Negligence on the part of the proposer in preparing his/her proposal confers no right of withdrawal or modification of his/her proposal after such proposal has been opened.

VIII. Mathematical Error

A. In case of mathematical error in extension of prices in the proposal, the unit price shall govern.

IX. A. In selecting a contractor, the CMHA will consider the proposal price, the ability of the contractor to perform the Scope of Services (information in the proposal package), comments from references, and other information deemed relevant. The ability to perform will be measured by the ability of the contractor as demonstrated by financial stability and performance of similar contracts.

B. A Review Committee will be established to review and evaluate all proposals and to rate all proposers. The Review Committee will conduct a preliminary evaluation of all proposals and may contact references listed in the proposal. The Review Committee may recommend rejection of all proposals or may continue its review. Thereafter, the Review Committee may meet with proposers to obtain additional information or clarification. Thereafter, the Review Committee may negotiate the exact Scope of Services (which may include charges in the RFP and negotiation of price if deemed in the best interest of the CMHA) with the highest proposer, if a satisfactory proposed contract cannot be negotiated with the highest proposer, the negotiations will be terminated. The CMHA may then enter into negotiations with another qualified proposer, or the CMHA may re-advertise.

C. CMHA's Review Committee will make a recommendation to the CMHA's Board of Commissioners concerning award of a contract. The CMHA's Board of Commissioners may vote to authorize the CMHA's Executive Director to negotiate and conclude a contract with a proposer, subject to certain conditions. 2. Two copies of the cover page of the specifications, signed by the proposer.
3. An original and a copy of the required insurance.
4. Other documents discussed during contract negotiations.

D. The CMHA's funding source must be approved before the Executive Director has the power to sign a contract.

E. Proposer acknowledges and agrees that no contract shall exist until signed by both parties. Additionally, until a recommendation of award has been officially made, any bidder will be deemed to have waived any all rights to obtain a contract with the CMHA or seek damages against the CMHA.
